Purchasing a new roof is one of the biggest decisions you'll ever make for your home. Fortunately, it's one you'll probably have to make only once or twice in your lifetime. That's why it's so important to make sure it's done right and that you'll have someone standing behind their work for years to come. Owens Corning Roofing Preferred Contractors are part of a network of roofing professionals dedicated to service, reliability and craftsmanship. They meet high standards and satisfy strict requirements — all to give you the peace of mind that you've chosen the right contractor for the job. Less than 2% of contractors who apply for this certification are accepted into the program. In order to achieve this honor a contractor must meet at least these minimum requirements:

Have operated under the same business name for a minimum of two years

Be in good standing with the Better Business Bureau

Hold at least $1,000,000 in general liability insurance

Carry all required state and local licensing and insurance

Pass a Dun & Bradstreet® credit analysis

Not have filed bankruptcy in the past seven years

Must have a local supplier endorsement and Owens Corning State Representative endorsement

10-year Workmanship Guarantee

Your Owens Corning Roofing Preferred Contractor offers the Preferred Protection Roofing System Limited Warranty.* The Preferred Protection Roofing System Limited Warranty* not only provides additional coverage for a long period of time, it also covers workmanship† for a full 10 years.
